

Students' of College of Veterinary Science, AAU, Khanapara to attend a training programme in Pune under NAHEP

Twenty internee students of College of Veterinary Science, AAU, Khanapara proceeded to Dr. B.V. Rao Institute of Poultry Management and Technology in Pune to attend a two-week long special training programme under National Agricultural Higher Education Project (NAHEP) from 4th September, 2023. They will have an exposure to Advanced Training in Commercial Layer Management, Commercial Broiler Management, Breeder Management, Disease Diagnosis and Feed Production Management.

Students' of College of Veterinary Science, AAU, Khanapara to attend Army Attachment Camp at RVC Centre, Meerut Cant under NCC

12 cadets of College of Veterinary Science, AAU, Khanapara under the aegis of 47 Assam R&V Sqn NCC left for 15-days Army Attachment Camp at RVC Centre and College, Meerut Cantt. The camp will inculcate a sense of devotion, unity, discipline, punctuality, alertness, obedience, teamwork and sportsman spirit in the cadets. It will also give them exposure to the Basic Military Training, weapon training, equitation and animal management, dog training and management and exposure visit to Horse Breeding Centre.

